THE TARIFF ON PRIDE

PROBABLY NEEDS REVISION

WHILE the Tariff question engages the attention of the lawmakers. it is appropriate that you should consider one phase of it which comes home to you, personally.

It is the TARIFF ON PRIDE—and, it is likely, this particular tariff costs you more than all other tariff schedules combined.

If pride prevents you from going "bargain-hunting;" from seeking the pest market in which to buy things; from watching the want ads. for opportunities to buy and sell things; from advertising for boarders or lodgers, even though you need the income they would bring; from advertising your service, or used ar icles which can be spared, or from taking advantage of chanc s to save or earn money - then you are, indeed, paying a high tariff on Pride.
